BISHOP NICK, Littley Green, Chelmsford, Essex	1555 (4.3% ABV) Bitter	Now this is a seriously full-bodied ale. No messing. Bishop Nick wasn't burnt at the stake in 1555 so we could sit quietly and sip weak ale. Not a chance. This rich tawny beer is a tribute to defiance. With an unmistakably sweet nutty taste underlined by the ginger and fruit of Styrian goldings, 1555 shall not be moved.

Sup this reminiscent old brew and walk down memory lane and feel like you're right there at V.E day
HOP MONSTER, Great Wakering, Essex	Rochford Banshee Porter (4.4% ABV) Porter	Very dark almost black colour. This lightly smoked porter was brewed as German Rauchbier but has been described as a smoked porter, a description I do agree with. Multi layered fruit and spice flavours with an undertone of light Beechwood smoke is extremely complex on the palate.

KING WJ, Horsham, W. Sussex.	Horsham Best (3.8% ABV) Bitter	This mid-brown coloured session bitter has a wonderful aroma of caramel, roasted malt with a hint of smokiness and dried fruit. This beer has a smooth and full mouthfeel whilst the initial taste is of intense nutty malt sweetness which then gives way to a distinct smokiness imparted by the crystal and dark malts. This is followed by and balanced with a long lingering spicy and pine hinted aftertaste chockfull of English hops.
KING WJ, Horsham, W. Sussex.	Brighton Blonde (3.9% ABV) Golden	This golden, pale blonde ale has a distinctive hoppy aroma derived from use of Celeia hops late in the copper. The scents are reminiscent of fields of grass freshened by a short shower on a sunny summer's day. The taste is sharply hoppy and beautifully stimulates the underside edges of your tongue. There's the merest hint of malt to complement the hops. The aftertaste develops the hops further with an increasing dryness and straw bitterness to finish.
